Words of Welcome
We welcome each one who has come to worship God today. Whether you are a faithful member, a treasured friend or an honored guest, we praise God for your presence. If you are a first-time visitor, please give us your name and address as the friendship register is passed to you in order that we may have a record of your presence with us. You are also invited to take one of the Crowders Creek pens with you as a memento of your visit today.

“Christian Unity”

Behold , how good a thing it is And how becoming well,
Together such as brethren are
In unity to dwell! In unity to dwell!

Like precious ointment on the head, That down the beard did flow,
Ev’n Aaron’s beard, and to the skirts
Did of his garments go, Did of his garments go.

As Hermon’s dew, the dew that doth On Zion’s hills descend;
For there the blessing God commands,
Life that shall never end, Life that shall never end.
